

How Do We Know What Works? Challenges and Opportunities for Building Evidence for Practitioners

Child Welfare
Virtual Expo

Jerry Bruce | Margo Fudge | Jennifer Haight | Joseph Walker

Capacity Building
CENTER FOR STATES

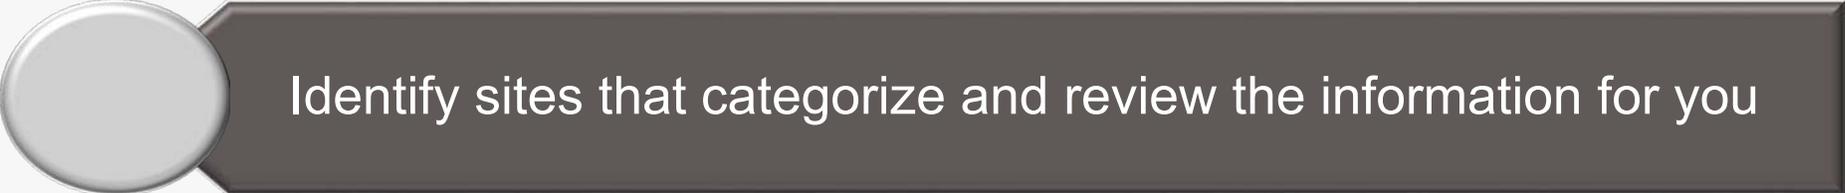

How Can Frontline Workers Be More Informed Consumers?

Learn more about varying continuum of evidence – mostly based on rigor of study design

Explore sites that compile research into one document

Identify sites that categorize and review the information for you

Know what data are available to you at the local and state level

What Is the Relationship Between Evidence-Based Practices and Ethical/Cultural Considerations?

Ask: who does this work for? – Check out the population in the study. Is it the same as the group you are trying to improve?

What outcome(s) did the program achieve? And how does this compare to the unique challenges you are facing?

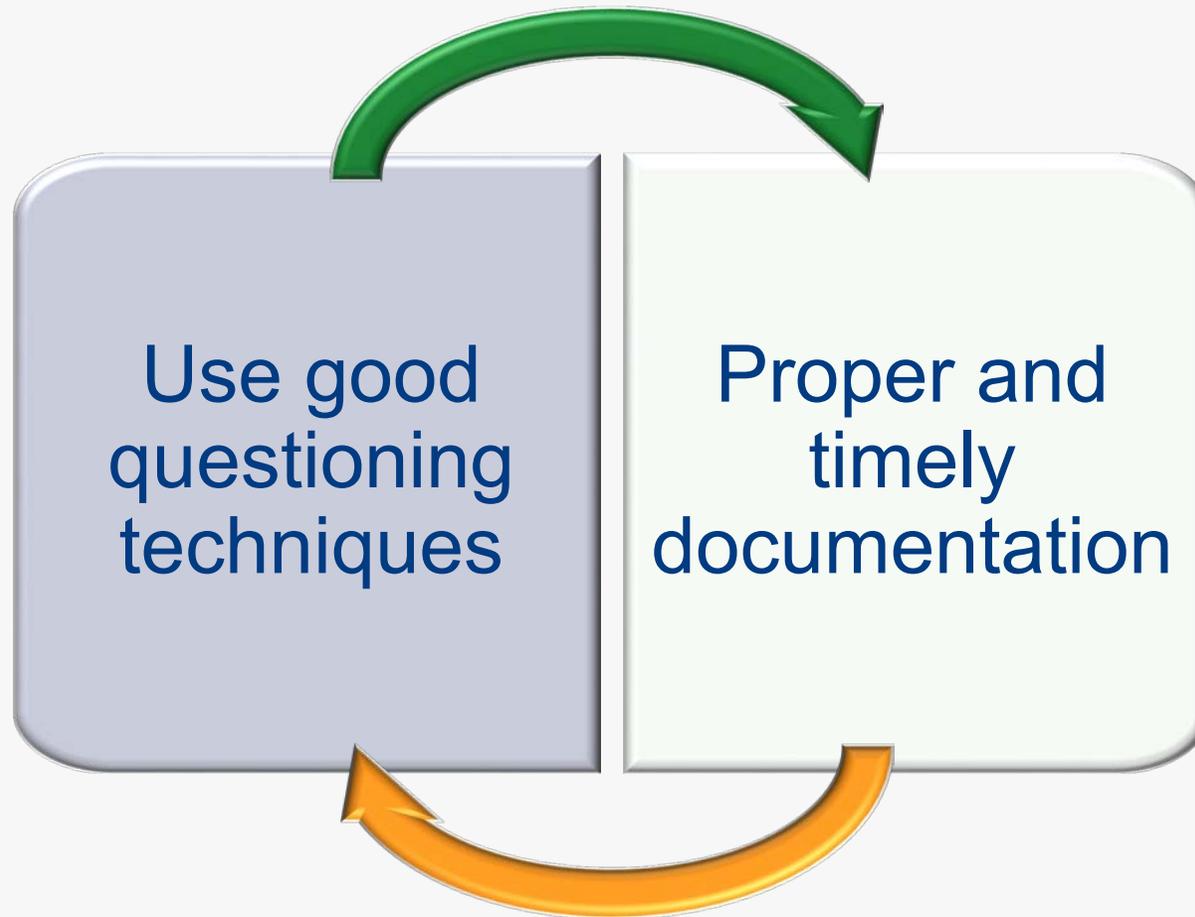

How rigorous was the study? Did it use comparison group? Random samples?

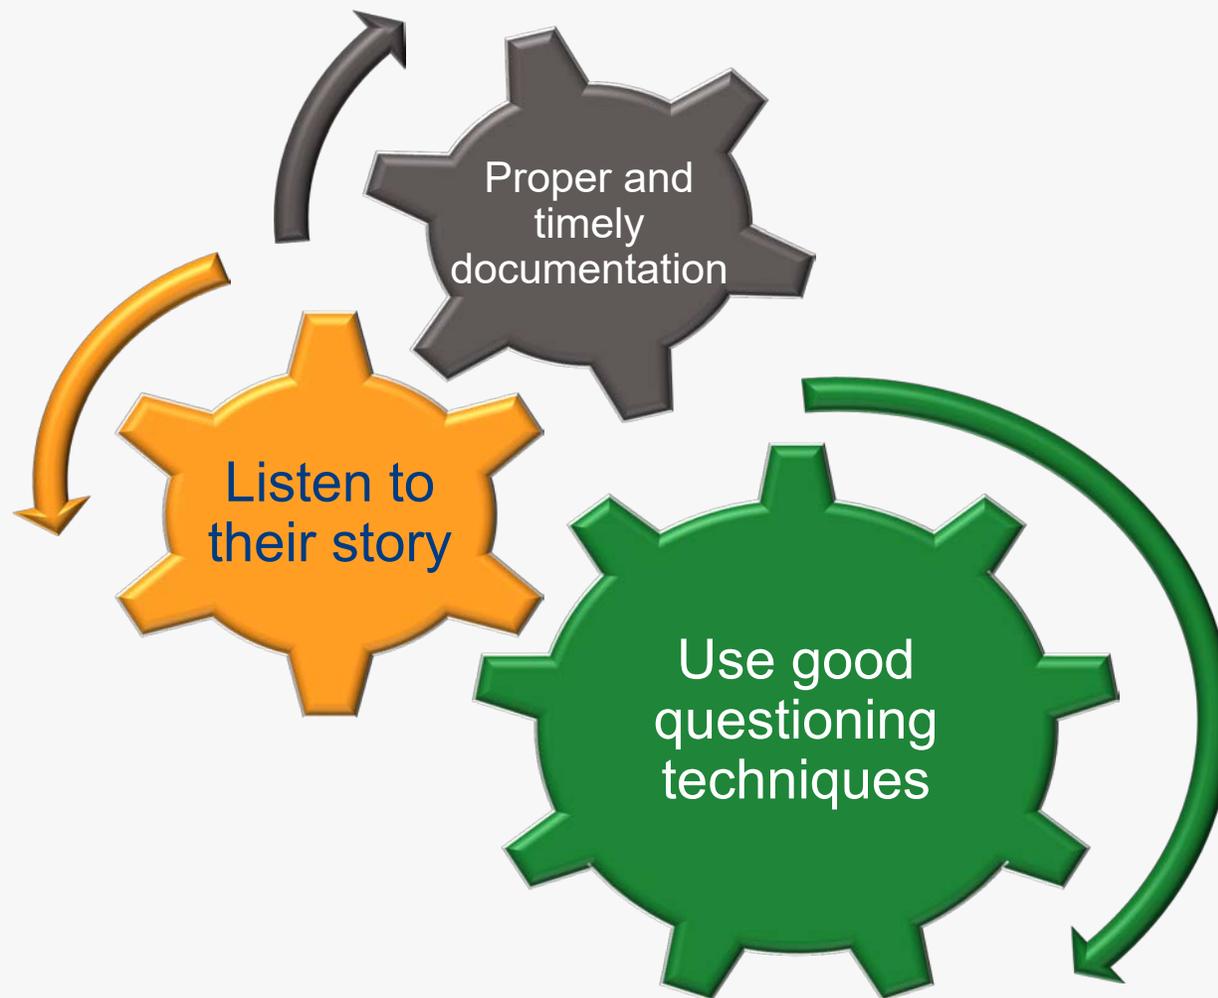

What cultural considerations were used in gathering the information and data?

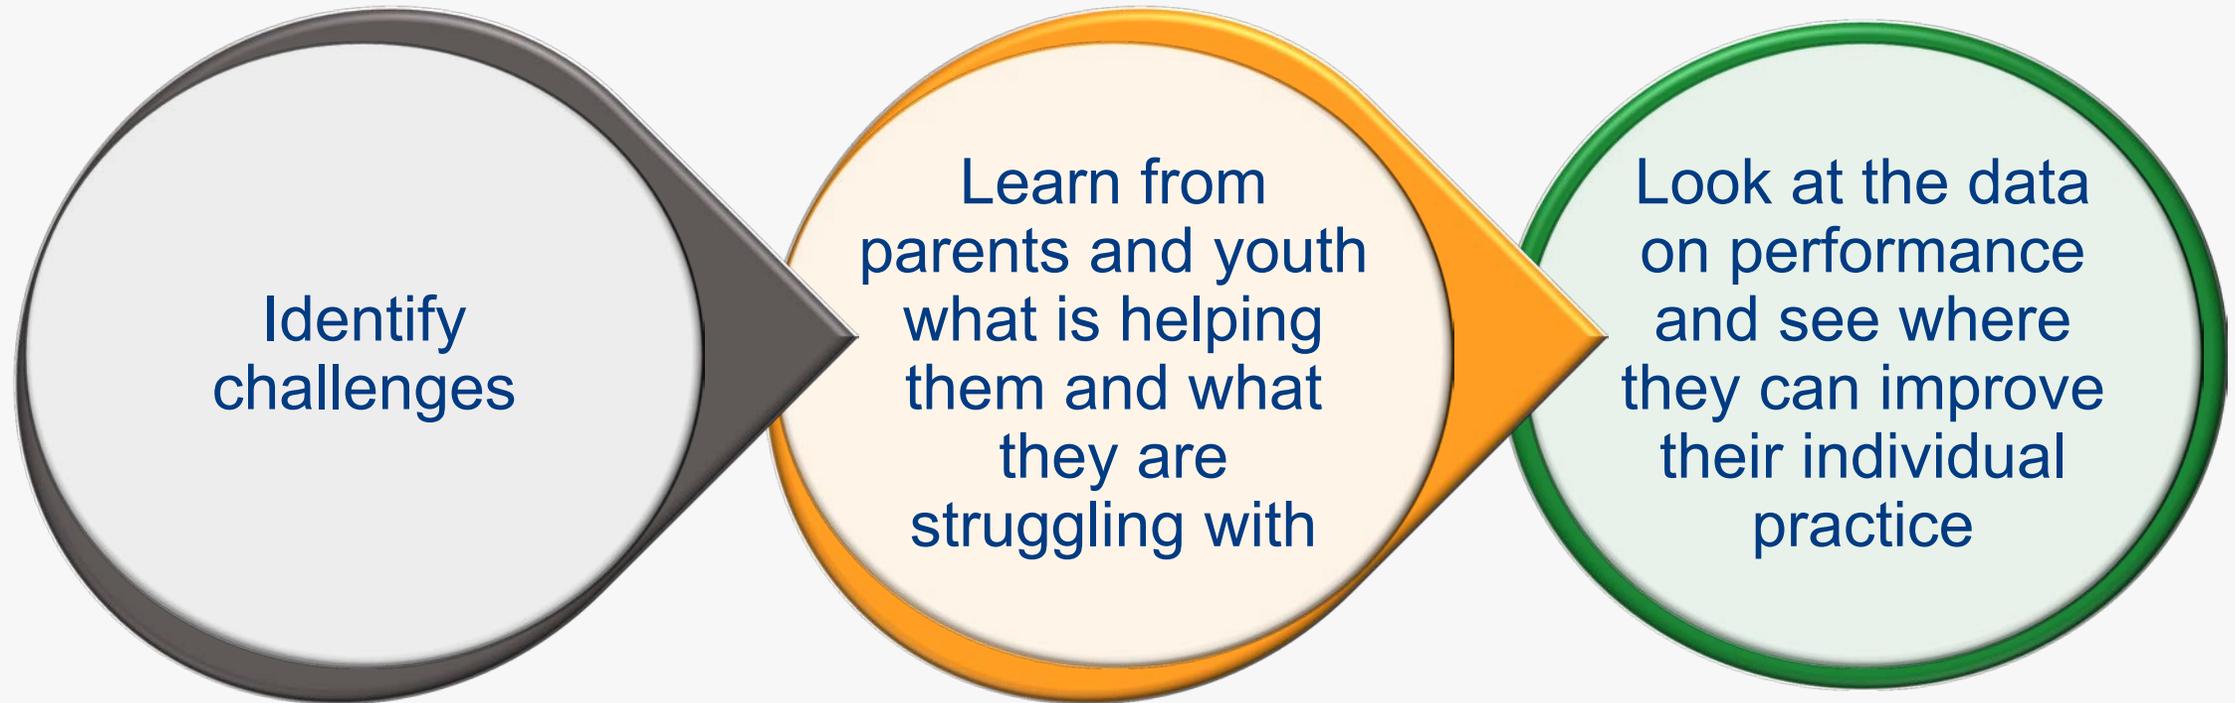

What Role Do Frontline Workers Play in Decision-Making as a Pathway to More Effective Service Delivery?

Opportunities in Everyday Work With Children, Youth, and Families to Contribute to the Body of Evidence Related to Effective Practice

What Role Do Frontline Workers Play in Applying Their Knowledge of Evidence?

Up Next!

Thank you for your participation today!

Please explore the Exhibit Hall and chat with speakers in the Networking Lounge.

The next session will begin at 1:15 p.m. Eastern Time.

