ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: Great Starts, a comprehensive women's treatment program based on a therapeutic community model, is a program of Child and Family Tennessee, a private, non-profit, regional social service agency in operation since 1929. Great Starts has evolved since its 1991 opening from a supportive housing program to a JCAHO accredited mental health and addiction treatment service, with a licensed, on-site, therapeutic nursery. Up to 22 women and 37 children reside for up to 8 months in apartments on a campus where treatment and services are provided. Great Starts has served 692 drug exposed and HIV+ children and 530 pregnant or postpartum mothers.

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: The program objectives include treating mothers' substance abuse, trauma, and other mental health problems; educate mothers about child development, including developmental delays associated with pre-natal drug/alcohol exposure, and improve parenting skills, improve children's mental and physical health, provide ancillary services to address mothers' education and job training deficits and to obtain employment and permanent housing, coordinate services with providers in the community who interact with
