ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: The Hunter College School of Social Work is one of the largest graduate schools of social work in the United States and the only public graduate school of social work in New York City. Its mission is to serve vulnerable populations, particular, children, youth and families.

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: The Hunter College School of Social Work, in collaboration with subcontractors, the Child Welfare League of America and the National Foster Care Coalition, along with our state and city partners in this project the Oregon Department of Human Services, State Office for Services to Children and Families, the New York City Administration for Children's Services and the Mississippi Department of Human Services, Division of Family and Children's Services proposes to develop, implement, evaluate, and disseminate a competency-based training curriculum for public child welfare agency supervisors to insure the effective delivery and management of federal independent living service for youth in foster care. The objectives of the project are to develop a training curriculum and supervisory transfer of learning guidebook to be used for child welfare agency supervisors in the effective delivery of services, and to field test, revise, evaluate, and disseminate a training curriculum and transfers of learning guidebook to be used by Child welfare training supervisors.
