ABSTRACT:
Organization Description: Chapel Hill Training-Outreach Project, Inc. (CHTOP) proposes to become the grantee for the National Resource Center (NRC) for Community-Based Grants for the Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect (CBCAP).

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: Led by CHTOP, the NRC will provide high-quality training and technical assistance (T/TA) to CBCAP State Lead Agencies (SLAs) to promote the purposes of CBCAP legislation. Briefly stated, project goals are: Foster an understanding, appreciation, and knowledge of diverse populations, Facilitate and assist efforts of State, local, Tribal, public, and private agencies in interagency, inter-disciplinary, planning and development of a network of community-based programs, Assist State CBCAP leads in developing meaningful parent leadership roles, Conduct regular and ongoing needs assessments, Assist States to leverage funds for program financing, planning and operation of prevention programs, Promote the development and implementation of SLA program evaluation processes, and Assist SLAs to become active in Child and Family Service Reviews and Program
Improvement Planning. CHTOP will partner with organizations whose expertise in child welfare will ensure quality T/TA and fidelity to Title II of Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA). Guided by an advisory board, the NRC will effectively and economically assist SLAs promote community-based child abuse prevention programs. T/TA topics, guided by the needs and priorities of SLAs and requirements of Title II of CAPTA, will include parent leadership, leveraging funds, cultural competency, evaluation, developing core prevention services, prevention’s role in Child and Family Service Reviews and initiatives for strengthening marriage, fatherhood, faith-based involvement and service to rural communities. T/TA will be delivered via a list serve, web-site, on-site training, national and regional grantees’ meetings, distance learning techniques, and practical written products. The University of North Carolina will evaluate the operations of the Center.
