ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: The Bienvenidos Children's Center, Inc is a non-profit organization based in Los Angeles, California. The organization has provided services under the Abandon Infants Assistance Program since 1992. The mission of the program is to provide comprehensive, culturally competent counseling, education and support services to Latino children in the greater Los Angeles Area.

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: The Bienvenidos Children Center, Inc. will target young Latino/Latina families in the greater Los Angeles and Hollywood areas who are at risk of abandoning their HIV/AIDS and/or substance exposed children by offering a wide range of supportive services. Services include home-based counseling and education, family support services, substance abuse recovery support, as well as permanancy planning and education. These services will be expanded and enhanced in order to increase the knowledge of three hundred professionals through specialized training. The achievable outcomes include, but are not limited to, preventing the abandonment of infants exposed to HIV/AIDS and substance exposed children and improving parent/child relationships.
