ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: Founded in 1701, Yale University is a research university comprised of a variety of programs, departments, schools, centers, museums, and affiliated organizations. Its three major academic components include Yale College, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and ten professional schools.

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: The Yale Coordinated Intervention for Women and Infants (CIWI) and the Yale Positive Interventions for Families with HIV/AIDS (PIFA) will build upon outcomes and experience previously developed. The program will promote positive parent and child interaction in the service of healthy development. It will address issues such as parent/child communication, substance abuse intervention, and parental guidance and support. Parental guidance and support groups will be facilitated, and an aftercare program will be implemented to maintain and support the gains made by families that have successfully attained the goals of the in-home treatment program.
