ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: Harmony Adoptions of Tennessee, Inc. is a licensed, non-profit agency that provides supportive services to perspective adoptive families who have previously adopted a child or children. The services focus on preparing and informing birth and adoptive families about the adoption process, and the challenges and rewards that come from adopting a child.

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: Harmony’s Infant Adoption Awareness Training is specifically designed to provide training to designated staff of eligible health centers in the Southeast. The training empowers professionals to provide adoption information and referrals when counseling women as they review options related to an unplanned pregnancy. Training tools include: an audiovisual presentation and accompanying student handbook, a training announcement: What Do You Say to Her, a client brochure, a video that outlines the adoption process, a computer based training course, a newsletter, and a website.
