ABSTRACT:

- Organization Description: Lutheran Social Services of South Dakota is a United Way organization that provides supportive services to families, children, young adults and adults. The services include, but are not limited to, assisting with adoptive placements, and developing implementing foster care for children.

- Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: The goal of the Lutheran Social Services of South Dakota project is to improve awareness and knowledge of infant adoption among health care workers in Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming. The objectives of the project are to increase the number of health care workers who are comfortable presenting the adoption option to parents and clients, increase health care workers’ ability to make appropriate referrals, to modify and expand the established Infant Adoption Awareness Training Program curriculum to meet the needs of the states. To meet the needs, Lutheran Social Services will offer a total of twelve, two-day training opportunities in each state over a two-year period. A one day follow-up session will also be offered in health care settings over two years. It is expected that 1,560 health care professionals will be trained during the
