ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: The University of Texas at Arlington School of Social Work works to educate students as they progress towards Bachelors, Masters and Doctoral degrees in Social Work. The program strives to enhance students' knowledge base regarding theoretical perspectives of human behavior and diversity as well as practice techniques in order to effectively implement such knowledge into direct clinical and community management practice.

Use(s) of ACF Program Grants: The University of Texas at Arlington, School of Social Work, in collaboration with the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services as well as with the University of North Texas Department of Social Work to develop a curriculum to improve the knowledge and skills of Texas child welfare supervisors and caseworkers who are working with Hispanic families and children. Dissemination of the project curriculum, training materials and results will be accomplished by presentations at national conferences and publications in scholarly journals.
