ABSTRACT:

  Organization Description: Founded in 1839, The University of Missouri, Columbia is one of six public universities in the country with law, medicine, and veterinary medicine all on one campus. It is the largest public research university in Missouri, encompassing 20 schools and colleges, and more than 275-degree programs. Its mission is to improve public welfare in the areas of education, health, well-being, and economic development.

  Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: In collaboration with the Missouri State Child Welfare Agency (Children's Division), the University of Missouri, School of Social Work will implement a four-year training project to prepare twenty (20) MSW students for extended service in the state public child welfare agency (Children's Division), or in non-profit private sector agencies serving clients of the public sector.

  The project will prepare MSW students for the challenges of rural and/or urban child welfare services via practice concentrations in Family and Children Services, or Planning, Policy and Administration. The practice concentrations will stress direct practice with children and their... families, supervision and administration, policy development, and practice evaluation.
