ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: Northern Arizona University, School of Social Work prepares students in the Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program to work in rural and urban environments with diverse client populations. In addition, students' knowledge bases are increased with the promotion of global, social and economic justice in the community as well as the larger society.

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: The Arizona Board of Regents project will provide eight traineeships to prospective and/or current child welfare staff that are enrolled members of the Navajo Nation. The eight individuals will earn their BSW degrees by completing the fully accredited BSW curriculum at Northern Arizona University over a two-year period. The program will begin in the fall of 2004 and graduation will take place following the summer of 2006. The Navajo Nation will employ the graduates for two-year period. Additionally, the project will provide on-going in-service training to twenty-five child welfare staff members currently employed by Navajo Nation in order to strengthen Navajo Social Service practices regarding the continuity of care for children and families engaged in child welfare services.
