ABSTRACT:

Organization Description: The Hunter College School of Social Work, in collaboration with subcontractors, the Child Welfare League of America and the National Indian Child Welfare Association, proposes to establish the National Resource Center for Family-Centered Practice and Permanency Planning (NRCFCPPP).

Use(s) of ACF Program Grant Funds: The objectives is to help strengthen the capacity of State, local, Tribal and other publicly administered or supported child welfare agencies to: institutionalize a safety-focused, family-centered, and community-based approach to meet the needs of children, youth and families; develop, support and maintain a range of services to maintain children safely in the home when appropriate; provide quality care for children in the care and custody of the State; plan effectively for and move children from foster care to safe, permanent home placements; assess the child and family's strengths and needs; remediate family needs and build on strengths; provide supports to prevent recidivism; engage all family members and kin including fathers and implement the Federal legislation administered by the Children’s Bureau and to achieve the goals of ASFA, MEPA and ICWA. The NRCFCPPP will accomplish its objectives through regular and ongoing needs assessments; a national technical assistance strategy; on-site technical assistance, training and consultation; identifying and disseminating promising and innovative practices; supporting States in their Program Improvement Plans; developing and disseminating materials, including curricula, guidelines and training materials; and collaborating with the other ACYF Resource Centers and agencies. The NRCFCPP will additionally provide financial and effective coordination for the National Association of State Foster Care Managers, and in cooperation with the NRC on Special Needs Adoption, assist in conducting and providing financial support of a two or three day national conference for NASFCM, State Adoption Programs, and state staff involved in child welfare programs.
